REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The primary reason for allowance of claims 1-9 is the inclusion of the limitations of an optical printing device that includes n rows of recording elements being spaced substantially a multiple of $L (m+k/n)$ apart in the direction of advancement of the photosensitive recording medium, where L denotes a distance between the centers of recording pixels according to the desired resolution of a recorded image, m is an integer of 1 or more, and k is an integer of 1 or more and less than n . It is these limitations found in the claims, as they are claimed in the combination of that has not been found, taught or suggested by the prior art of record, which makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

The primary reason for allowance of claim 3 is the inclusion of the limitations of an optical printing device that includes a head driver for driving a print head to successively perform the exposure of n rows of recording elements so as to provide $n+1$ colors after the exposure in one line. It is this limitation found in the claim, as it is claimed in the combination of that has not been found, taught or suggested by the prior art of record, which makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
